

Sacred Site/Shellmound Peace Walk

Sponsored by
Indian People Organizing for Change (IPOC), Shellmound Peace Walkers, SSP&RIT and Foot Prints for Peace
November 17-26, 2010

Beginning in San Jose, CA, traveling through the Bay Area to Sogorea-Te` Shellmound (Glen Cove in Vallejo), ending at the Huchiun Shellmound (Bay Street Mall in Emeryville)

IPOC Shellmound Peace Walkers along with SSP&RIT and Foot Prints for Peace invites all to join in a journey of walk and prayer to remember our ancestors that lived on this land for thousands of years. The walk will be led by traditional Native American leaders and Nipponzan Myohoji Buddhist. We will walk and pray with our ancestors in areas where shellmounds and sacred sites have been desecrated by development, and celebrate the return of our ancestors due to the NAGPRA law recent changes.

Needed for the walk:

- Bring a good attitude
- Please bring your own utensils, bowl, plate and cup. Sleeping bag and clothes for all types of weather, including rain gear. Money for Alcatraz Ferry on Thanksgiving morning $16-$18 and any other incidentals that you may need

Donations needed:

Places for people to stay the night at our destinations. Groups to provide evening meals. Water for the walkers. Financial donations to purchase supplies. The use of vans and/or trucks to assist in transporting walkers and the elderly.
